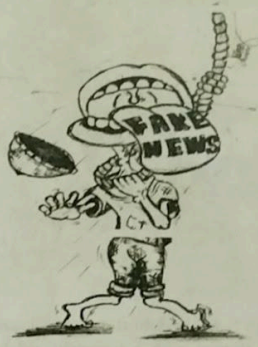
EDITORIAL



SHAMELESS TONGUE

One of the most highly regarded journalist in the Philippines, head of big news TV, an investigative reporter and both Manila and Jakarta Bureau for CNN, Maria Ressa was indeed a high valued person but at the same time a powerful enemy of President Duterte.

Aside of this conflict which is commonly seen as the cause of arraignment, the arrest was actually done upon the complaint of a private businessman regarding to a published story. However, a question remained unaccountable for many and the allege was perceived as a charge of manipulated cyber libel by a bully government.

Republic Act No. 101751 or the Cybercrime Act of 2012 clearly stipulated that anyone can be sued for false statements published in the cyberspace. Last February 13, Maria Ressa and Researcher Reynold Santos were hit with another lawsuit related to a story published in 2012 about Wilderedo Keng's connection to illegal drugs which he strongly disagree and complained to NBI for further inspection and arrest which result for Ressa to endure the detention for the whole night and post a bail for her release.

According the National Union of Journalist of the Philippines, the arrest was a shameless persecution and a threat to those who opposed and manipulate the narrative information of the government.

Rappler was said to be a company who monitor fake news on Facebook and in social media but presently, they are alleged of spreading fake news evidently on how Ressa imposed an interview that is now infamous wherein according to her, President Duterte killed three persons.

On the other hand, the fact that Cybercrime Act of 2012 makes possible for the online publishers to be sued for the crime within 12 years of publication, Maria Ressa had to face her responsibility for her false statements to preserve the principles of press.

Department of Justice stated that Rappler re-published the article after the enactment of law and thereby prone for criminal case. But the arrest adds up the suspense and possibility that government provoke any media organization who go against the rule and totally added the vocabulary of shame as Duterte himself declared that Rappler was a fully owned company by Americans.

Although the case was slightly related to Maria Ressa's confict against the government, the story published in the cyberspace evidently reject her innocence due to her false statements. Indeed, it is just a job for her to report the painful truth with the help of intelligence data but her false statements on the article almost leave the Rappler in --crisis and her ability as a journalist is questioned.

Unlike Marcos's regime, media was given a privilege to uncover the truth through investigation and capability to disclose such information through intelligence data. But such privilege requires a great responsibility including to be wise in choosing the right statements and setting aside ones perspective. The committed error made herself undergo persecution not by a bully government but a government who corrects, justifies and maintain the settled law.

Word spread like wildfire form from a spark and destroys the natural beauty instantly while it's course of restoration is a gradual process that needs a lot of time for healing.

Fake news, with its unbearable opinion needs an urgent response to minimize the casualty and to preserve the culture of legitimacy also to banned any forms of mendacity that creeps silently as it produced wicked sting. Though the injury was done, we must be always careful of our shameless tongue for it destroys our reputation and an irreplaceable offense.

Mia Elyn Egagamao

Last February 16 is the 4th grand alumni homecoming of Pilar High School with the theme " Making memories Breaking Distances" with the hashtags # Uwian na! Uwian na Pilarian kita kita tayo!

The speaker of the event is Dr. Annawilda C. Tado (Batch 1989). This was attended by many delegates. In fact batch 88 was awarded as the best in uniform. The evnt was ended with a bang, a disco party.

PHS DELINEATES

Jenieveb Pastrano

Last year, Pilar High School Alumni Association proposed the project school signage for beautification of the front gate of the school.

This said project was proposed last year by Mrs. Jovy Montesino the ex PTA President. During their meeting together with the Alumni association Officers, PTA officers and the faculty.

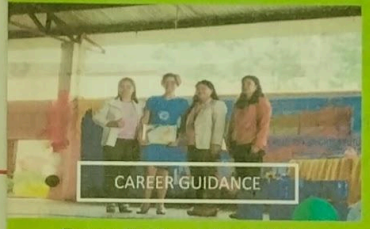
This project was approved by the board and they have allotted budget on this project. The cost of this project is P57, 000.00 pesos. They canvass different stores and they have deal with the Banua Publishing at Malabalay City.

The budget for this said project came from the collections of funds from the raffle tickets during the Homecoming and the Registration fees.

On the 15th day of Febr[illegible], Pilar High Signage has been established.

NEWSBEATS

1st Parents' Day was celebrated in Pilar High School last March 10, 2019 to give the parents a day to relax and be happy. It is also their time to be free with problems and their reward for their hard work.



Career Guidance for both Senior High and Junior High students of PHS is being rendered to enlighten the students on their future careers and how it is very important for them to be guided with their parents.

Intramurals 2019 transpired. Many activities were enjoyed and participated by the students . It has been the catalyst to spread the virtue of camaraderie and sportsmanship which is the most vital essence and [illegible] event.

SHS EXPO 2019 TRANSPIRES

The 2nd Senior High Expo transpired last March 18, 2018. It was attended by many schools; Pilar High School, San Vicente, Vista Villa Annex and Sumilao National High School.

Every school exhibited the best outputs their students have. Pilar High School has displayed the artworks, scholarly outputs of the General Academic Strand and Humanities and Social Sciences.

The event was attended by numerous validators to check the efficiency and the students' proficiency towards their outputs.

Other schools had showed how technology played a vital role like the contest for Mobile Legends which was participated by many.

It is indeed a student oriented activity!

LGU ESTABLISHES SUMILAO TOURISM AND PASALUBONG CENTE

Brix Rhey Z. Omonlay

The Local Government Unit of the Municipality os Sumilao establishes the Sumilao Tourism and Pasalubong Center located near at the Alalum Falls. A project made possible by our courageous Municipal Mayor Antonio Villo.

This has been the destination of many tourists and neighbouring municipalities who wanted to witness the colourful and full of zeal culture Sumilao has.

From the products that are being sold, it is noticeable that it has been displaying the local delicacies ever known here in the Sumilao. To such extent, the said center also sales accessories that are proudly made by the Higaonon natives.

This is a jumpstart to not just earn income but largely, this is the way to safeguard the culture from being forgotten by people which is the most beneficial purpose it stands for.

WE [illegible] BEST AND WE NAILED IT. AND THAT WHAT'S MATTER THE MOST"

Sayaw ng Pagluluwalhati

Sa mataas na paaralan ng Pilar High School nagsimula ang lahat. Nagmula sa simpleng paghakbang pakana't kaliwa nabuo ang isang alamat. Ang alamat na nagbibigay-buhay sa labing-anim na mukha ng pagsasayaw.

Sining kung maituturing ang pagsasayaw. Isang malikhaing kasangkapang ginamit upang magbigay-puri at luwalhatiin ang walang sukatang pag-ibig ng Diyos. Instrumentong siyang ginagamit ng labing-anim na mukha ng pagsasayaw o mas kilala sa tawag na Liturgical Dancers.

Mula sa puting kasuotan na sumisimbolo sa pagiging banal at puro. Nagpapakita na dapat nating panatilihing malinis at walang bahid ng kahit anumang kasamaan ang ating puso at buong pagkatao. Na dapat tayong lumapit sa liwanag na nagmumula sa sulo ng pag-ibig ni Ama dahil ang pagiging banal ay hindi lamang tungkol sa pagiging santo ngunit ito rin ay pumapatungkol sa isang mahalagang mensahe na tayong lahat ay kailang lumakad kasabay ng puting liwanag at pusong busilak.

Kapag pagod na sa paghakbang pakinggan ang pagtunog ng panderetas na nagsisilbing makabagong palaspas na nagsasabing ang daan ng Panginoon ay ihanda na. Tunog na nagmumula sa langit na isang hudyat upang buksan natin ang ating sarili. Na bilang taong puro na handa ng salubungin Siya at patulin sa ating buhay. Tayo'y magdiwang kasabay ng pagkalembang ng kalangitan.

Sa pagbubukas ng ating puso unti-unting kakainin ng putting usok ang ating buhay. Magmimistulang langit ang paligid. Mapupuno ng purong saya at walang pagsidlang biyaya ang bawat isa. Ang natatanging usok na kayang magtaboy ng paghihinagpis at kalungkutan. Iiral ang pag-ibig at pagkaka-isa kagaya ng pagsasayaw na kailang ng tiwala at pananalig sa isa't isa. Ang daang buhol-buhol ay magiging tuwid.

Marami ng daan na natawid ang labing-anim na mukha ng pagsasayaw. Narating na nila ang iba't ibang bahay panalanginan na siyang naging tulay sa pagbubukas ng mga pusong handang patuluyin si Kristo sa kanilang buhay. Mga pintuanng nagbukas at pinapasok ang mga usok na siyang bumalot sa kanilang pagkatao upang patuloy na magsilbi sa lumikha. "Hindi lamang kami sumasayaw para sa ikasasaya ng mga tao kundi para ikaluluwalhati ng Diyos ng aming mga puso".

The Hang Man's Regression

Kaye Alo

It was a cloudy evening, when I walked the old populated, wearing my thick jacket that I've never been worn in a month. Holding a cup of cappuccino giving those warmth that I've been yearning for so long. The aroma of it still invaded my nostrils even the coldness of the city touches my skin.

Shop's window glasses showed my own reflection like a gemstone's facet. Scattered from nowhere. Different songs played in every corners of streets. Screaming out my plea if can be like that and if life can be just like that. Because life is too hard for so long and I already haven't enough strength to get that easy. Perhaps, fighting for so long can make feel the numbness. Digging my own grieve with my trembling hands and weaken knees expecting that pain would last but no. I'm just giving it to those people who always wishes that if I can fight any longer as they do.

If I knew it earlier that stars glimmered in front of me saying that night phases meant all about me, when fireflies confess that my life served as their lives. Maybe I'd still continue fighting those melancholic mourns, keep myself awake when nightmares already lived behind my eye lashes. Maybe if I'd realized it earlier that life will still get better, that I can see light in the darkness and all I need to do is hold on. That some pain was made to be understood and happiness means to understand. Maybe I'd never been let myself being hanged in the ceiling.

Crypts of the Sky

Xyvel Shain Santa-ana

Spoilers, the things we thought that can protect us are actually the one who will kill us.

The modern world establishes new modern technologies that help a lot in the evolution of modern ages. But still chaos cannot be stop even if a lot more inventions came, because a person's hidden intention to it.

Modern protection built for our security, strengthening soldiers to maintain our sleep undisturbed, and build bridge for a fast interaction that leads to unity.

However, instead building those things for protection, this things are now the main reason why a lot of people are now buried alive, because of a person's inability to be contented.

Firstly, modern protection for harassment. Sometimes the protection for our security, has now become a power to threaten, control and slave others.

Secondly, soldiers who awaken the silent night. We built soldiers for our safety, but now soldiers are the main reason why many are widely awake and an ending woes can be hear even in dusk.

Thirdly, bridges for power. Instead of building bridges for unity interaction, it has now became a way to stay neighbours, flash it with bombs and fires.

So in generalizations, we build these things, not for everyone, we build these things for ourselves, to own power and threaten the weak to gain authority and position, in order to save ourselves in raising the hierarchy of the drowning earth.

So instead of building these things that we thought would protect us . Why we don't we try to build a sense of contentment in ourselves, maybe in that way we can still save ourselves from the tomb we made, besides why would achieve much more when in the first place we cannot bring it in our death?

Thus, world chaos will never end if we let our fear, interest and inability to be contented rule ourselves, for it was the one who buried ourselves alive, and because of it there is no life in earth anymore, only crypts under the sky.

Random Thoughts

Teenagers– state of rushing all things up. Humans as we are, it is natural for us to seek for happiness in love. However, spending your entire teenage life with it is toxic. It is like depriving yourself to celebrate your life as a teen, to be happy and to be free. Take note, your being a teenager is far more than that. It is beyond how you see it now. It is not all about rushing all things up. Your family needs you. So prioritize those what they wanted for you. Not those things you wanted for yourself.

It is so mature of you when you get into the resort of making yourself your source of hope and comfort in times of solitude, strife and pain. It never matters anymore if you can't air out your disgrace. What counts the most is you still stand tall up against circumstances without relying on other people. You maybe strong with others, who will help, guide and laugh with you but their total absence would never weaken you but for sure would make you go even further with life.

Sometimes you work requires you to look good, happy and strong. Thus pretending becomes a skill you need to master. Yet even how hard you try to mask everything, it will still reflect. Being tired is not a manifestation of being weak. It is an indication of being strong. Hence it is a result of hard work, perseverance and dedication. Take note! Being tired is a natural feeling not a sign of defeat nor failure.

Batas No I.D., No Entry

Sunserge Marie Alo

BUACSPC 2018 Champion in Column Writing

Napakagulo na ng mundo ngayon lalo na dito sa Mindanao. Ito ay dahil sa mga terorista at NPA(New People's Army) na walang awang gumagawa ng gulo at pumapatay ng tao. Kung kaya't kailangan ng batas at seguridad lalo na sa mga mamataong lugar kagaya ng paaralan. Napakahalaga din ng disiplina at pagpapahalaga ang bawat isa sapagkat ang batas ay para lang naman sa kabutihan ng lahat. Pero sapat na ba ang batas para sa kapayapaan o nagdudulot din ito ng panibagong kaguluhan?

Ang " No I.D., No Entry Policy"ay normal o minsa'y parusa sa mga kabataan. Sapagkat kinakailangan nila itong sundin upang makapasok sa paaralan. Ito'y upang mapanatilig ligtas ang paaralan mula sa kaguluhang mangyayari sa labas at ipanatili ang batas para sa lahat. Ang simpleng pagsunod sa batas na ito ay may mga benepisyong hatid sa paaralan, kumunidad at sa bawat indibidwal.

Una, ang pagkakaroon ng "ligtas na siguridad o security". Ang securidad ay napakaimportante para sa ating lahat. Ang mga taong walang mapakitang I.D. ay hindi pinapasok upang maisugoradong walang masamang tao na maghatid ng kaguluhan. Ayon kay General Bato, " Napakahalaga ng kaligtasan ng lahat kung kaya't mayroong batas".ang mga batas ay ginagawa para sa kapayapaan.

Pangalawa, ang pagkakaroon ng "Disiplina". Ang mga kabataan ay pinapaaral upang matuto at madidisiplina ng pormal. Ang pagsuot ng I.D. ay hindi isang mabigat na Gawain ngunit napakalaki ng impluwensya ang maihahatid nito upang nairepresenta ang paaralan at ang sarili. Ayon nga sa ating punong guro na si Ginang Emma S. Pabahe , "Wearing your I.D. is not a big work to do, but it represent yourself on how discipline you are". Ang pagsuot ng I.D. ay nagpapakita kung gaano ka karesponsabli at madisiplina bilang isang mag-aaral.

Pangatlo, ang pagkakaroon ng pagkakilanlan o " identity". Sa simpleng pagsuot ng I.D., nagbibigay na ito sa paaralan ng malaking tulong sa kapayapaan. Kagaya nag paglakad sa hallway sa napakaraming tao, ang mga guro at staff ay hindi na mahihirapan na magtanong sa iyong paaralan. Ito rin ay nagrerepresenta kung estudyante, staff o bisita ka sa paaralan.

Sa pangkalahatan , ang batas na ito'y itensiyon lamang sa kabutihan sa lahat. Ang pagsuot ng I.D. ay hindi nakakaragdag sa problema ng estudyante, ang problema ay ang pagiging irresponsabli. Gusto mo ng pagbabago? Simulan mo sa sarili mo. Gusto mo ng maayos na paaralan? Ayusin mo sa sarili mo. Paano ba ang magiging maayos ang paaralan kung mismo ang mga estudyante na may pinakamalaking bilang sa parte ng komunidad ay hindi nasusunod ang simpleng batas?

Katwiran naman ng mga estudyante, " nakakalimutan ko", isang sikat na linyang di mawawala. Kung ika'y makakalimutin, panatilihing nasa ayos ang inyong mga gamit . Lalo na ang iyong I.D. Isabit ito sa pinto o sa mga bagay madali lang makita.

Gusto ng mga estudyante ng malinis at progresibong paaralan ngunit hindi nga madisiplina ang sarili sa simpleng pagsuot ng I.D. nila. Dapat tandaan ng mga estudyante na parte din sila ng paaralan. Kung kaya't may responsibilidad din sila na kailangang ganpanan. Kung gusto mong progresibong paaralan, simulan mo sa pagiging responsabli sa sarili mo. Ang pag-unlad ay nagsisimula sayo.

Reality over Apology | Filipino WORKERS

Odessa Celeste Mae Casas

BUACSPC 2018 Champion in Editorial Writing , BUACSPC 2017 3rd placer and DSPC 2017 8th placer.

Several programs were activated by the government particularly the Build Build Build program to somehow lessen the prevailing poverty and deployment of more workers abroad. However, recently, Special Envoy Ramon Tulfo alleged Filipino workers as lazy and insufficient and seen as the root of deploying more Chinese workers to manage the operation of building more structures with the aid of modernize machines. Aside of this controversial statement, he stressed out that he won't be apologizing for he perceived it as true and noticeable in this time.

On CNN interview, Ramon Tulfo said that contractors had told him that they prefer Chinese workers because Filipino ones were inefficient, talk on the job and take too many breaks which insulted workers and banned him for his job as an envoy. This statement is according to the developers which he let flow out on the mainstream without defending his fellow Filipinos from judgments.

Meanwhile Partido Manggawa said that Tulfo is the one who is lazy and incapable of giving evidence to back up his affirmation that Chinese work hard than Filipinos. According to the National Wage and Productivity Commission, the minimum wage for non-agricultural workers ranges from a low of P280 a day in the ARMM to P537 a day in NCR which is obvious that Filipino workers are underpaid and overworked. Partido Manggawa also challenged Tulfo to engage in their heavy job with a low wage.

On the other hand, aside of the allege, Presidential Spokesperson Salvador Panelo said that Tulfo's comments against Filipino workers is freedom of expression. Though the Palace disagree with the evaluation, adding Filipinos are generally is not lazy based on the numbers of deployed workers abroad. Moreover, his statements was based on the comment of developers that needs skilled workers to operate powerful machines and modern equipments which Filipinos were lacked about.

Indeed, the opinion of special Envoy Tulfo severely hit many Filipino workers but it is somehow show a realization and a reason why Philippines is left behind and undergo such rash critic.

"THE WORKERS MAY BE INSULTED BUT THE GOVERNMENT MUST NOT ONLY MAKE TULFO TO APOLOGIZE RATHER TOOK AN ACTION TO PROMOTE PROFICIENCY AND MASTERY IN WORKING TO FILIPINOS."

Ending Mobile Legends

Sophia O. Dalu-an

Gadgets like cell phones are now the new instruments to consume time. Gone are the native games like patentero, tumbang preso that children are usually do during afternoons. It was replaced by mobile games which are entertaining.

The popular mobile legend, is fast conquering the world. Almost everyone has mobile legends app installed in their phones. Most of the time, students will be seen pressing something on their phone. That is how mobile legends occupy most of an individual.

Parents want to end this popular mobile legends. It's because according to them, aside from it consumes most of the time of their children, it affects their growth and development in lot of domain in life. It's due to their addiction, children that are playing mobile games skip meals miss other task and opportunities that are not on screen.

Apparently, parents are having barbaric rants about the mobile legends apps because their children at young age is addicted to such game. Looking to me other side , it's not the games fault. The games didn't ask the children to install it to his or her mobile phones. Technically, it is the parents fault for they are giving free access of mobile technology to their children at young age.

According to experts, parents shall avoid digital media for toddies younger than 18n to 24 months other than video chatting. Limit screen use for pre-school children, ages 4 to 6 , to just one hour a day of high quality programming. It just happened that now a child at 4 years old is now on the elite on the rank system.

"SOMETIMES, IT'S NOT ALWAYS ABOUT THE REASON BUT THE STORY BEHIND THAT REASON. "

Furthermore, experts came to realization that same parents just do not want their child to be left behind so they will always make everything to keep them "in" the latest. But practically, it was not good. For a better future of a child, a parent should let a child play along with alphabet and numeric charts not on anything on screen.

Psychology researchers have used mobile legends to advance our understanding of how people build " mental models ". The mental tool that allow people to make use of complex systems. Their insights into how people builds mental model have potential applications for developing trainings programs in general and possible for game design in particular. In other words, mobile legends helps to develop mental complex system of an individual but as usual with limitation.

When you see crucially and was mess around you , seek for the reasons, do not just throw the blames to others . for example, if you're addicted to mobile games and it caused you hospitalized , then think about why did you get addicted to it. If your child is addicted to mobile games, what's your child aid.

Therefore, ending mobile games will not be the solutions to end the addiction in mobile legends and negative effects of being addicted. Think about if mobile legends will be ended now, there are still great possibility that another mobile games will be produced.

"Change the way you're living. You're maybe addicted because you have nothing to spend your time with but just your phone. So, engage yourself to different outdoor activities."

Rope People Around THE NECK

"So instead of telling them some hurtful words or telling them that dreams can come true, but you forget that nightmares are dreams too, wake them up , for no matter how beautiful your words are, you can never sell a dream to a person who walk through nightmares."

Someone read a beautiful poem of a great writer. It tackles about death that's why the readers clap and was amazed. But never did they know it wasn't a poem nor a quote – it was a suicide note.

The modern technology gives a lot of help in order to catch a person's attention and to keep them entertain whenever they are alone or within the group, even they are sad, happy, lonely, excited or any kind of emotion. But still sometimes the new technology are never enough to stop people's unstoppable mouth.

Words like, it was their own fault why they make themselves suffer, they are the one who responsible of their lives. That person is so stupid, it's such a shame that life was just wasted, I pity them, besides people die when they are killed.

Suicide is not just about self-killing, self-murder, self-slaughter, or self-slaying, because no one dies from suicide, everyone dies because of blindness, errors, wounds, weariness, withering, torment, and being played.

Suicide isn't just about hurting your own self, it's like giving them another bullet to shoot and trusting them the second time around, just because they missed the first one. It was like giving them a thousand a newest invented games, believing that they would not play a person's feelings.

It was like hoping that an assassin would save you, and endlessly believing on the manipulating words of a close friend, who will poison you in the end. Your words are, you can never sell a dream to a person who walk through nightmares.

And if someone jump with them, instead be at the bottom and catch them when they fall and tell them that no matter how dark the storms the ones who have the right to hope are the one who live.

Suicide isn't just about drowning in your own thoughts, sometimes it's the edgy word that we throw into another person, which cause them to bleed even if it's just a slightest cut. So instead of telling them some hurtful words or telling them that dreams can come true, but you forget that nightmares are dreams too, wake them up , for no matter how beautiful .

Thus, suicide doesn't end the pain*, it is just passes it from persons to another person. Suicide happened because we failed to see the message of it because we choose to believe a beautiful lie rather than accepting a painful truth. Because we are busy enjoying and giving attention to ourselves we failed to see that we stab others until no tear is left and thinking that I was just a suicide, but the truth is we are the one who hang them, we are the rope a person's neck.*
